

2019 Academy for Government Professionals

Resilient Communities in a Rapidly Changing World

Wednesday, March 27, 2019

8:30 AM to 4:00 PM

AGENDA

8:30	Continental Breakfast
8:45 – 9:00	Welcome & Opening Remarks Michael Wilkes, City Manager, City of Olathe, KS
9:00 – 10:00	CYBERSECURITY: Preparing for the Known versus the Unknown - What is the best approach? Steve Arbo, City Manager, City of Lee's Summit, MO Tony Sage, Director of Information Services, City of Liberty, MO
10:00 – 10:45	Building Financial Resiliency into Local Government Penny Postoak Ferguson, County Manager, Johnson County, KS
10:45 – 11:00	Break
11:00 – 11:45	Leveraging your Community's Assets Greg McDanel, City Manager, City of Maryville, MO Daron Hall, City Manager, City of Pittsburg, KS
11:45 – 12:30	Lunch
12:30 – 1:15	Pursuing New Parks and Recreation Services in Response to Citizen Input Joe Snook, Administrator, City of Lee's Summit, MO Parks and Recreation Department
1:15 – 2:00	HR/Organizational Development – Planning for Change Gary O'Bannon, Director of Human Resources, City of Kansas City, MO
2:00 – 2:10	Break
2:10 – 3:00	Building Resiliency into Municipal Operations and Land Use Planning to Respond and Thrive in Adverse Conditions Susan Sherman, Assistant City Manager, City of Olathe, KS Mary Jaeger, Public Works Director, City of Olathe, KS Erin Vader, Assistant Director, Communications, City of Olathe, KS
3:00 – 4:00	Reflections About Metro KC Local Governments – Are We Resilient Enough? David Warm, Executive Director, Mid-America Regional Council